

Violence Hits in Arkansas, Seven Persons Dead

By The Associated Press

Two traffic accidents killed five persons in Arkansas yesterday and a murder-suicide took two other lives. The death toll in one of the highway accidents may climb higher.

Four Negroes, including two baby girls, died when a car packed with 10 people crashed into a bridge abutment on U. S. Highway 65 eight miles north of Dumas late last night.

The other six passengers were injured, and at least one of them was in critical condition early this morning.

A mental patient, home for a holiday, and his wife were found dead at their home near McCrory yesterday. A coroner's inquest ruled murder and suicide in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Halley Dupree. Sheriff Jesse Pendergast of Augusta said Dupree shot his wife and himself at their Hilleman home.

At Fort Smith, an 18-year-old soldier was killed when he was thrown from a car which crashed into a house after it and a truck had collided. The victim, Pvt. Harlan H. Brevig of Sawyer, N. D., was impaled on an iron pipe which had been driven into the ground to support a plant.

Dead in the wreck near Dumas were Mary Anita Washington, 17 months; Freda Ann Dunn, about 18 months; and Earle Mae Dunn, about 20, all of Chicago, and Leon McFee, about 70, of Portland, Ark. Miss Dunn and infant Freda Ann were distant cousins.

The two infants were killed in the accident; the other two victims died shortly after they were admitted to a Dumas hospital.

Mrs. Eddie Washington, 21, mother of Mary Anita, was listed by hospital attendants as critically hurt. She suffered a skull fracture; a compound fracture of the jaw, and a fractured leg.

Her husband, 22, and the driver of the car, Andrew Dunn, 20, of Chicago, were injured seriously. Henry B. Matheny, 24, of Portland, Ark., and two children whose names have not been determined escaped with minor injuries.

State Trooper Buren Jackson said the cause of the accident wasn't known.

The occupants of the car were in route from Portland, about 30 miles south of here to Chicago. Another soldier, Sgt. Chester H. Sparks, 29, suffered minor injuries in the accident at Fort Smith. The truck driver, Bill Pinkerton of Little Rock, was unhurt. Both Sgt. Sparks and Pvt. Brevig were stationed at Camp Chaffee. No one was in the house when the car smashed into it.

Two other deaths Wednesday brought to nine the number of violent fatalities in Arkansas since Sunday midnight.

At Stuttgart, 2-month-old Irvin Kim Powell died of injuries suffered when he fell from his mother's arms. Mrs. Bernice Powell dropped her son when she stumbled. The baby suffered a fractured skull.

The body of 32-year-old Chester Lee Price was found in a brush pile near his farm home south of Camden. He died of burns apparently inflicted when his clothing was ignited by a brush fire he had built.

Timber Losses Are Heavy in the South

Sixteen Southern states suffer a greater monetary loss from wildfires than the entire nation suffers in property loss from organized crime, says state forester Fred H. Long, who is a member of one of the organizations sponsoring the first all-South Conference on Wildfires.

Conservative estimates set the annual loss to the Southern economy from wildfires at more than $250,000,000 a year, F. B. I. reports for 1954 set the dollar value of property lost, and not recovered, through robbery, burglary, larceny, theft and auto theft at only $216,000,000 for the entire nation.

To stop this staggering loss of property in the South, the Southern Forest Fire Prevention Conference has been called, with the endorsement of the Conference of Southern Governors, for April 13 and 14 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The wildfire problem is particularly a Southern problem, since 89 out of every 100 acres of forestland that burn in the U. S. are in the South, said Fred H. Long, state forester. Furthermore, he continued, 85 out of every 100 forest fires are in the South and 94 per cent of all fires that are deliberately set are in the South.

The New Orleans Conference, a citizens meeting to which the public is invited, will study the problem.

Two Slayers Put to Death in Missouri

By United Press

Two killers paid with their lives today in the Missouri gas chamber at Jefferson City and the New Mexico electric chair at Santa Fe.

Arthur Ross Brown, 30, who kidnapped, raped and killed an attractive Kansas City housewife last summer, died at 12:11 a. m. CST in the Missouri State Prison.

Exactly 58 minutes later, in the cold, echoing death chamber of New Mexico, two electric jolts killed James Larry Upton, 22, Upton, a hitchhiker who killed a young airman in September, 1954, was smiling faintly when the death mask was put over his face.

Both murderers were calm during their last minutes.

Brown prayed with Catholic priests and then thanked prison officials for "all you have done for me and my mother." He broke into a sweat when he entered the gas chamber and three minutes later was dead.

An almost hour-by-hour series of legal maneuvers had failed to save Upton's life at the last minute. But he was unemotional when he took his seat in the electric chair, asking only "don't they put a mask on me."

Moments before Upton died, a guard faintly. Upton didn't flick an eyelash.

69 Services in County Work 191 Persons

Receipts of 69 service establishments enumerated in Hempstead County in the 1954 Census of Business amounted to about $1,274,000, according to a preliminary report covering service trades, published by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

The combined yearly payroll of the county's service establishments was $347,000. They reported 191 employees of whom 188 worked fulltime in the pay period ending nearest November 15. Proprietors actively employed in the operation of unincorporated businesses numbered 69.

Establishments providing personal services numbered 31 and reported receipts of $262,000. Establishments primarily engaged in automotive repair, parking and other automotive services numbered 12 and had receipts of $262,000.

Establishments listed as "all other services" in the preliminary report numbered 26 and had receipts of $747,000.

"Personal services" group includes such businesses as barber and beauty shops, cleaning and dyeing plants, laundries and laundry services, garment alteration and repair services, funeral services, photographic studios, shoe repair shops and shine parlors, as well as other personal services.

Additional Polio Campaign Funds

Additional donations have been received for the Hempstead Polio Drive amounting to $21,400 bringing the drive total to $459,200. Contributions were from Split Hickory Handle Co. workers $3, Patmos PTA $5, Shover Springs HD Club $5, Jim H. Stuart $2, Fulton students $4.40, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Drummond $2.

Cost of Living Shows Decline, Report Shows

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The cost of living dropped slightly in January, the government reported today.

The drop means a one-cent-an-hour cut in pay for about 1,000,000 automobile and farm equipment workers whose wages are pegged to a cost of living scale. Their pay cut will take effect in the first pay period in March.

The slight January decline brought the cost of living to her lowest point since August 4. Lower prices for food, household furnishings, clothing and automobiles accounted for the decline.

The consumer price index declined 1-10 of one per cent between mid-December and mid-January to 114.6 per cent of the average 1947-48 prices. This was 3-10 of one per cent higher than a year ago.

The peak level of the index was 115.4 per cent of the base period in October, 1953.

Commissioner Ewan Clague of the bureau of Labor statistics predicted that the February index would remain stable or show another slight decline.

The bureau said that widespread food price declines, reflecting lower farm prices, were the main factor in the January drop in the overall cost of living. It was the fourth straight month of decline in food prices. Even restaurant meal prices, which have been rising since last June, were slightly lower in January.

Negroes Ask Foubus for Assurance

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A group of Little Rock Negro ministers has appealed to Gov. Orval Foubus to make certain that Arkansas complies with the U. S. Supreme Court's anti-segregation decisions, but the governor won't comment on their plea.

On Jan. 28, Foubus said a private survey, which he ordered, indicated that 85 per cent of all Arkansas oppose racial integration. He emphasized the "all" and said he wouldn't take part in "any attempt to force acceptance of a change to which the people are so overwhelmingly opposed."

After meeting with Foubus, the Rev. Roland Smith, spokesman for the 9-member ministerial delegation, told newsmen the governor wouldn't commit himself on their appeal. Foubus later affirmed that he had nothing to say in reply to a statement by the delegation.

The Rev. Mr. Smith released copies of the statement which urged Foubus "as the elected leader of our state through the suffrage of all the people, without regard to race, to use your influence and power as our governor to uphold the Constitution of the United States and to abide by the laws of the land as interpreted by the Supreme Court of the United States."

Adding that "We are committed to give our full support to . . . desegregation," the statement continued: "We are urging you . . . to see that the Supreme Court's decisions shall be carried out within a reasonable time."

Reporters were barred from the delegation's meeting with Foubus by the governor's executive secretary, Arnold Sikes. The Rev. Mr. Smith had said that the delegation had no objection to allowing newsmen to sit in.

Merchants of Hope to Stage a Citywide Bargain Event on February 29, Leap Year Day

The Retail Merchants' Division of the Hope Chamber of Commerce has just completed plans for a citywide bargain event to be staged on Leap Year, February 29th. The merchants have labeled this event, "Lucky 29," a once in four years event.

A. C. Ball, chairman of the Retail Group, stated that this was to be the biggest event of its type that the Hope Merchants have ever tried to assemble. Merchants have been buying merchandise for the past sixty days to be presented on this special day, February 29th, and in all cases will be offered at far below normal prices, and in numerous cases far below its actual cost to the merchant.

Ball said that as Leap-Year only comes once in every four years, the merchants decided to make this date one that the people in this area will remember for many years. He suggested that everyone in a radius of forty miles watch the Hope Star and listen to KXAR for further information about this date, and to be sure and "Look for the sign of the Lucky 29" which will identify participating merchants.

Weekly TV Guide to Make Its Bow in Saturday Star

Hope Star's weekly TV & Radio Guide will make its debut in tomorrow's edition — appearing every Saturday thereafter. The Guide will be a single newspaper sheet of the Saturday edition, and when folded three times like a road map the sheet becomes a small booklet listing air programs for each day, Sunday through Saturday. Programs to be carried are: KCMC-TV, Channel 6, Texarkana; KTBS-TV, Channel 3, and KSLA, Channel 12, both of Shreveport; and Radio KXAR, 1490, Hope.

Advertising space was sold out a week ago, with a backlog of accounts now on the waiting list — owing to the limited space available.

Second Band Concert Set for Feb. 28

A second concert is scheduled for Tuesday, February 28, when the Hope high school and Junior high bands perform in the school auditorium. Curtain time is eight o'clock. Again the bands offer a program of the best in classical as well as contemporary music.

As a feature of the concert, the high school band will play a newly-discovered work by Wolfgang A. Mozart. It is the overture to the comic opera "La Finta Giardiniera" (The Feigned Gardener). Discovered in old manuscripts late in 1936, it has only this year been scored for band. This performance is in honor of the two hundredth anniversary of Mozart's birth.

Other numbers on the program include the overture to "Rosamunde" by Franz Schubert; "Burlesque March" from the Caricature, Suite, by George Frederick McKay; and marches by the well known American writers, J. P. Sousa and K. L. King.

Tickets are in the hands of band members and usual prices prevail, twenty five and fifty cents.

NEWARK, N. J., (UP) — City Business Administrator Mariano J. Rinaldi came to rescue yesterday of policemen beleaguered by their own kind.

Rinaldi set aside parking space for working patrolmen and detectives after some officers were tagged with traffic tickets during a drive on cars parked near city hall.

Negroes Vow to Walk a Day in Montgomery

By REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — pledged to a massive campaign of firm but peaceful resistance, Montgomery negroes planned a 24-hour walk-to-work pilgrimage today in renewed protest against segregation on city buses.

The 100 or so among them who were indicted by a grand jury on antiboycott charges were called into court to face arraignment today. A date will be fixed for their trials, perhaps starting the week of March 19.

Eighty-nine defendants have been arrested and other arrests are still to come. The total number indicted was first announced as 115, but some duplication of names was discovered as the warrants were checked out.

Shout of "amen" greeted a minister's suggestion at a mass prayer meeting last night that "not a race-loving Negro" in his historic cradle of the Confederacy would use any form of transportation throughout today.

It was the Negroes' way of demonstrating that they can walk if necessary to carry in their 11-week-old boycott against Montgomery City Lines buses and the segregation required by city and state law.

Chanting hymns the throng cheered wildly when their leaders pledged an unrelenting fight against what they called "oppression." They chorused agreement when one clergyman spoke of "compassion for those who hate us."

The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy, pastor of the Negro First Baptist Church where the meeting was held, estimated the crowd at "around 5,000."

A rousing demonstration greeted Abernathy and other defendants in the boycott prosecutions as they pushed their way through the crowd to enter the church. Abernathy and 23 other ministers were among those indicted by the grand jury Tuesday.

The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., another defendant, whose home was damaged by a dynamite bomb last month, said that boycott is bigger than a Negro race revolt. We are seeking to improve the whole of Montgomery, not just the Negro Montgomery.

"This is not a conflict between the Negro race and the white race," he added. "It is a conflict between justice and injustice."

Abernathy told the crowd, "We have kept the struggle Christian and nonviolent. We have stressed nonviolence. We do not participate and will have no part in violence."

Shouts of "yes, yes" rang through the church when Abernathy vowed that "nothing will change" in the lengthening bus boycott despite the grand jury's finding that it is illegal.

Mafia Chief Found Dead in His Bed

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Jack Dragna, reputed West Coast Mafia chief, was found dead in bed yesterday, an apparent heart attack victim.

Dragna, 65, once was called the "Al Capone of California" by the state crime commission. It charged he controlled bookmaking, narcotics and other rackets.

A maid, Alice Dick, found Dragna dead in bed in his 79-a-day Sunset Boulevard hotel room. Dragna's Cadillac was parked outside the hotel where he had registered Feb. 10 as "Jack Baker."

Johnston, the Democratic leader, picked as members from his party's ranks Senators Gore of Tennessee, McClellan of Arkansas, Anderson of New Mexico and Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Republican leader, named GOP Senators Bridges of New Hampshire, They of Minnesota, Goldwater of Arizona and Purtell of Connecticut.

By agreement, a Democrat will head the group. Johnson made it plain he wants Gore, chairman of the Senate's Elections subcommittee, to fill the role. Gore had been planning such a broad inquiry as the Senate voted.

However, Knowland said in an interview that it will be up to the committee members to pick a chairman. He would not forecast whether the Republicans would accept Gore.

Nixon, who will call the group to order for its organization session, had set no meeting date.

Taxpayers Shell Out $12.2 Million in Week

LITTLE ROCK, — Taxpayers shelled out $12,296,080.69 this week through the state Treasury. That's the total of warrants written in the office of J. Oscar Humphrey. Salaries took $6,657,155; other expenses were $460,235.44. ## Young Slayer Is Declared to Be Sane

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Emmett Earl Leggett, 19-year-old ex-convict accused in the murder of 14-year-old Joe King and in the rape of two teenaged sisters, was reported today to be "without psychosis."

Circuit Judge William J. Kirby said the State Hospital, where Leggett underwent a 30-day mental examination, had declared the youth sane at the time of the crimes.

Leggett is charged with three crimes, all of which carry a possible death penalty.

He is charged with first degree murder in the strangulation death of the King boy during the Christmas weekend, and is charged on two counts of rape.

Leggett was arrested early Jan. 24 in connection with the rapes, and Sheriff Tom Guiley said the youth told police he killed the King boy.

Young King's body was found in a briar patch near Jacksonville Dec. 27. He had been missing four days. An autopsy revealed he had been strangled.

Sheriff Guiley said Leggett told police that he hit the King boy, then strangled him and dumped the body, after the boy rejected his sexual advances.

Asks Georgia to Be Against Both Parties

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Georgia Gov. Marvin Griffin called last night for an all-out war against both major political parties, charging they "are trying to see which can sink the knife deepest in the back" of the South.

The attempts of both Democrats and Republicans to aid the forces of integration will be successful, he said, "unless the people of the South unite and fight for our way of life."

"Let every white person in these Southern states unite and then we'll turpentine some of those timid souls in Washington," he said.

"It's about time we let some of our congressmen know that they are supposed to represent the South in Washington. Instead of representing Washington in their own districts," he continued as he addressed the organizational meeting of the Shreveport Citizens Council.

While Griffin made no reference to the national conventions this year, the meeting took on a presidential air when one of the audience shouted:

"Griffin for president."

Eugene B. Cook, Georgia attorney general, also spoke at the meeting and termed the U. S. Supreme Court's decision against school segregation "the most vicious rape of Anglo-Saxon jurisprudence in the history of free nations."

"If they can force us to integrate our schools, then they can knock out every state law banning mixed marriages and from what I know of the Supreme Court they would do it, too," he said.

Might Be Safer for Ike to Run, Physician Says

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower's personal physician said today the President "might be safer" from a health standpoint in serving a second term than he was before his heart attack.

The physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, made the statement to newsmen on this 15th month anniversary of the President's attack in Denver last Sept. 24.

Snyder chatted with newsmen as the President was climbing aboard a hunting roadster near here in a new quest for quality.

A reporter asked the doctor whether he feels Eisenhower will run for election.

"I have no impression about that," Snyder replied.

The next question was whether Snyder thought Eisenhower was physically able to run again. A newsmen said Snyder gave the impression in a Washington talk week that he believed the President is able to serve again.

"I don't know what anyone can tell on that," Snyder said. "These physical accidents can come out of nowhere and he has no guarantee in trying this thing again that it won't happen again."

"All he can do," Snyder said, "is trust in God if he goes ahead."

He added it "would be the same for a new man," meaning that any new President always would run the risk of developing ill health.

"Even many young men die of heart attack," Snyder went on.

Then referring to Eisenhower, Snyder said "it might be better for him than it was before."

Snyder did not elaborate on that. But he apparently meant that man who has had a heart attack is much more inclined to watch his health. Also, particularly in Eisenhower's case, the doctors have intensified their watch over his health.

Snyder pictured Eisenhower as "a very good man." The doctor added the President "has not been fatigued at all down here."

Eisenhower turned up for hunting his morning looking a bit sleepy-eyed but he and Hummer joked with photographers and reporters.

Eisenhower himself may put an end to all the guessing about his second term plans a few days after he gets back to Washington.

5 Killed, 100 Hurt in Train Accident

ODENTON, Md. (AP) — Seven cars of a passenger train, racing at 80 m. p. h. through the flat country south of Washington and Baltimore, broke loose last night and overturned. Five persons were killed and almost 100 injured.

A Pennsylvania Railroad spokesman said it was not yet known whether faulty air brakes caused the accident or whether the air brakes went on as a result of the accident. The engineer, said, the brakes grabbed suddenly.

The worst mangled car on the New York-bound Embassy was the diner. Apparently it tipped over just as it started to pass one of the heavy steel girders supporting overhead electric cables.

The force of the impact literally peeled back the roof of the diner like a garden lid. The roof broke apart, dipping chairs were tossed 50 to 75 feet away. Scattered sacks of linen napkins were blackened by the tramping back and forth of rescue parties.

Ten-year-old Paul Sloane of Baltimore, making the trip from Washington alone, said:

"I felt a bump and heard a big noise. Then I knew we were in a wreck. I was real scared. I got bumped around, but I didn't get hurt."

The dead were Alexander Nease, 22, Tregon, N. J.; Thomas Bell Johnson, 35, Baltimore; Alfred D. Ward, 50, New York City; and J. Haupt, Baltimore; Sydney . . .

It's a very sad accident.

Dulles Will Discuss Tanks to Arabia

BY JIM M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles is expected to tell senators tomorrow that vital security interests in the Middle East dictated the U. S. decision to send 18 light tanks to Saudi Arabia.

Officials indicated this line of argument today as Dulles, just back from a 10-day vacation, settled down to a quick review of the situation in preparation for the critical questioning by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Informants said one issue at which Dulles will take a new look is Israel's request, pending since last November, for $3 million dollars worth of weapons to counter Egypt's arms purchases from Communist Czechoslovakia.

There is considerable speculation in the State Department that Dulles may soon decide, subject to approval by President Eisenhower, to sell Israel some defensive weapons such as anti-aircraft guns or jet fighter planes.

However, informed officials said this question is still open. They said there has been no change in the policy of delaying a decision on the request while seeking by diplomacy to ease Arab-Israeli tension.

On his return from the Bahamas Islands yesterday, Dulles said he just learned of the uproar over the shipment of tanks to Saudi Arabia when he reached Miami and began to "read the papers."

Truck Driver to Trial in April

ARKADELPHIA (AP)—A South Carolina truck driver charged with first degree murder in the shooting of a woman hitchhiker probably will go on trial here in April.

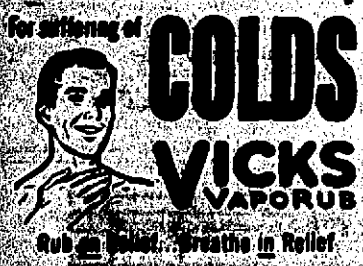

Prosecutor Travis Mathis said yesterday that David Geiger's trial tentatively set for the April 10th date in circuit court, was delayed to allow defense attorneys more time to prepare their case.

Geiger, 42, is accused of shooting Mrs. Mildred Holden, 32, of Slidell, Tex., last December. Mrs. Holden's body was found in a ditch alongside U. S. Highway 67 a mile north of Gurdon. She had been shot in the head.

After her arrest in his hometown of Summerville, S. C., Geiger told officers the woman shot herself with a pistol he carried in his truck. He said she offered no reason for the act. Geiger was quoted by officers as saying he was too frightened to notify police so he dumped the woman's body into the ditch and fled.

Geiger is being held here. His bond has been set at $20,000.

Best Known Home Remedy

AN INVESTMENT IN YOUR HEALTH

Because drug stocks are stored behind the prescription counter, few people see or realize the huge investment these drugs have in drugs which are needed in order to take care of their prescriptions on short notice.

Likewise, few persons realize that in many cases a $7.50 prescription today not only replaces a $1.50 prescription of years ago, but in addition it saves the hospitalization and doctor calls formerly required in conditions such as pneumonia, infectious diseases, and other ailments. Today's drugs are bargains when compared with yesterday's cost of illness. The research that is part of their cost is paying greater dividends to you in time, money, and effectiveness.

CHAPTER XXXV

Lucy hesitated. Then: "I just called to see if there is anything I can do. Nellie is all alone now, and I'll be glad to... help in any way I can."

"That's very kind of you, but Abner Cornwallis is bringing a lady named Sarah Allbach to stay here for a while."

"Oh, yes. Sarah took care of Mother when she had the flu last winter. She hesitated again. 'Want you tell me why Wilbur did it?'"

"It's a long story. I said a trifle wearily. 'Ask Dr. Jarrett—he knows all about it.' 'I'm afraid that's impossible, she said. 'I suppose you're wondering what I was doing at his office tonight."

"I hadn't thought about it. 'He—asked me to come over. Said it was important. It was the same story—he pleaded with me to go away with him. I told him I wouldn't. Then you arrived, and I left—but I don't know why I'm bothering you with this."

"Sometimes it helps to talk about things. I'm sorry about you and the doctor."

"Don't be, she said in a brittle voice. 'He's still in love with Alice. He'll always be in love with her, and I would always be—be second choice. That's plain to me—now. I cannot believe a man who's in love with a—ghost."

We said goodby.

When I turned I saw that Nellie Tweed was awake and watching me silently. I moved to the leather chair and sat down. "I'm sorry the phone awakened you."

I leaned back in the chair and crossed my legs. As I did so, I saw that there were still a few gray cat hairs clinging to the blue flannel of my trousers. I thought of Alice Osborns cat, the cat I'd named Rosemary, and I hoped that she would be happy in her new home at the county jail. Carefully I picked the hairs from the flannel and then leaned back again.

She was lying on her side facing me, her head resting on one upraised arm. In the sweater and blue jeans and under the soft light north of Gurdon. She had been shot in the head.

After her arrest in his hometown of Summerville, S. C., Geiger told officers the woman shot herself with a pistol he carried in his truck. He said she offered no reason for the act. Geiger was quoted by officers as saying he was too frightened to notify police so he dumped the woman's body into the ditch and fled.

Geiger is being held here. His bond has been set at $20,000.

she was a pleasing and almost youthful sight. Maybe the absence of her dark-rimmed glasses added to the illusion.

"He used my gun, she said, and her voice broke. "I—I hate that. 'Don't blame yourself, I said. She sighed deeply, turned on her back and gazed at the ceiling."

Wilbur must have taken the gun from her room, she said, from the closet where she kept it. Her father had given it to her years ago, when she was 2 years old, because she liked to hunt in the woods with him. A rifle to a kid in the woods, I had learned, was as common as coaster wagons and doll buggies were to kids in more urban areas.

I gazed at her, at the soft shadowed planes of her face, and at her rather angular body clad in the sweater and the blue jeans. There was a little dried mud on one cuff of the jeans—and I saw something else. Slowly I sat up, feeling a kind of cold numbness in the back of my brain. I leaned forward, peering intently, and I knew that I was not mistaken.

On one leg of the jeans, just above the ankle, there was a matted cluster of gray cat hairs. I said softly, "You killed Alice, didn't you?"

A kind of dreaminess was in her eyes. She gazed at the ceiling and spoke in a sing-song voice. "What did you say?"

"Tell me about it, Nellie, I said. 'Tell me how you killed Alice, because you couldn't bear to have her marry Wilbur. Tell me how your brother was all you had left, after your sweetheart was killed, and how you buried yourself in mothering Wilbur, and how you couldn't stand to have another woman here, not in your little dream world. Tell me all about it, Nellie."

She turned her head and now her gaze was direct and sane. "Whatever are you talking about, Mr. Bennett she asked calmly."

"Would you mind repeating what you just said."

"You hear me, I said with sudden harshness. I warned her off with a forearm and she stumbled past me and almost fell. She whirled and came for me again and the wildcat look was in her eyes. Fingernails raked my cheek and for a couple of seconds I had my hands full just trying to save my eyes. She was amazingly strong and fought savagely and silently. I was embarrassed and degrading to be forced to struggle physically with a woman in anger, and I remembered similar previous encounters with distaste and shame. But sometimes, like now, it can't be helped and I held her off, hoping that she would give up."

But she didn't. Quickly and cunningly she twisted from my grasp. When I hit her again it was truly in self-defense. I hit her on the left cheek with my open palm and there wasn't time to be careful about it. It jarred her. I used a fist then, and that did it. She fell away from me with a sharp little moan. I tried to catch her, but I missed. She hit the floor and lay quite still."

I got out a handkerchief, dabbed at my cheek and then wrapped it name for adventure, just as today Chicago, Los Angeles, Kansas City, and long-overlooked St. Louis are symbols of new growth. So are Omaha, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and other cities.

But as the old individual buildings of the past are torn down and the new more efficient buildings—in terms of the utilization of space—go up, well, something is lost.

What is happening here in Denver in the current American prosperity boom is what is happening to other cities. It is losing a portion of its former personality and getting a crowded feeling.

Even though the fresh tall towers are planted on stilts, the crowded feeling deepens. There are so few towns that always gave such a spontaneous sense of human freedom such as San Francisco, and Denver.

Beautiful, beautiful old Denver, fading away: Beautiful new Denver, blooming in series patterns where once wild flowers grew:

What can a man from out of town say about you, Denver. You have garnered the gardens of fiction and pressed your new plantings close together and yet farther apart. You grow deeper and yet wider, as others cities do.

You hold a great promise as you cling to a previous performance. You are like a growing youth, Denver, that must and will grow taller, but equally is loved for the days when he was more boisterous, less predictable—and smaller.

lem in the 16 participating States and discuss means and methods for cutting down the number of fires and the severity of those that do start. Leading Southern officials will tell what is being done and what can be done in the future on a South-wide and state-by-state basis.

"If more than half of Kentucky burned everyone in the South would be up in arms and eager to do something to help her," said State Forester Lang. "And that is what our loss in 1954, of more than 7.8 million acres of forestland amounted to—more than half of the forestland of one of our states, Kentucky."

"At New Orleans we hope to arouse South-wide public opinion against this menace to our property and to the future growth of forestry and woods-using industries in the South."

The comparative statistics on crime and wildfires show that compared to the 143,000 wildfires in the South were only 67,000 robberies in the entire nation, according to the F. B. I. report which covers about 90 per cent of the U. S. population.

U. S. to Enter Picture in Hoxie Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—An effort by segregationists to dissolve a federal injunction prohibiting them from interfering with racially integrated schools at Hoxie, Ark., will be opposed by the U. S. Justice Department.

The department will support the position of the Hoxie School Board in an appeal of the injunction by three segregation organizations, which have tried in vain to force the board to abandon integration in the town's schools.

G. Frederick Mullen, public relations director for the Justice Department, said last night that the government intervened as a "friend of the court" in the case last Monday. The department will file its brief with the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis next month, he said.

The three segregation groups have asked the Circuit Court to overrule U. S. District Judge Albert L. Reeves, who enjoined them early this year from interfering with the operation of the integrated schools.

Terms of the injunction, requested by the school board, prohibit members of the groups from boycotting or picketing the schools, trespassing on school property or threatening school officials with bodily harm.

Judge Reeves also upheld the board's contention that Arkansas' law requiring segregated schools is unconstitutional, and that the board would subject itself to possible criminal and civil prosecution if it was to abandon integration.

The board charged in court that segregationists had boycotted the schools and threatened some school officials in their campaigning to force a return to separate schools for the races. Witnesses for the defendant organizations flatly denied every charge.

In appealing the injunction, at

"You're all right, I said. 'I'm sorry I had to hit you. 'Doyle, she said. 'I dreamed you were Doyle. It—it was silly. Doyle is dead."

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower's new program for releasing a billion dollars worth of uranium at home and abroad for peaceful atomic projects presented a challenge to Russia today to follow suit.

The President announced late yesterday that the United States will make available 88,000 pounds of atomic material, uranium 235, to pioneer American firms and to friendly nations in a demonstration of "our faith that the atom can be a powerful instrument for the promotion of world peace."

His announcement came just one day after Soviet Premier Nikoia Bulganin had stated that, "We communists must fully place the greatest discovery of the 20th century—atomic energy—at the service of... the cause of building communism."

Bulganin pictured Russia as "ahead of other countries" in the peaceful uses of atomic energy, but did not talk of sharing atomic materials.

Actually, Eisenhower barred distribution of any of the 88,000 pounds of U. S. U-235 to the Soviet Union and its satellites, as well as to any other nations presently

Dulles Faces Outspoken Critics Today

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles confronts some of his most outspoken critics today at a public hearing which Sen. George (D-Ga.) said he hopes will get "bipartisanship back on the right track."

Dulles was invited before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for questioning about administration policy toward the tension-ridden Middle East and on ways to counter new Russian economic, political and diplomatic moves.

George, chairman of the committee, said he thinks the session "will help get a return of a greater measure of bipartisan consultation."

Demands for an explanation from Dulles stemmed from the future over shipment of 18 light tanks to Saudi Arabia. But Sen. Humphrey (D-Min.) said he wants to question Dulles on everything from his "brink of war" interview to policies in Korea and South Asia.

State Department sources said in advance Dulles would tell the committee that vital security interests in the Middle East dictated the 18 tank shipment.

One effect of the shipment has been to increase pressure on the State Department to authorize purchase by Israel of 50 million dollars worth of weapons to com-producing the material. But with those exceptions the President said the supply will be furnished "over a period of years" for research and development purposes and for fueling nuclear power reactors both "at home and abroad."

ter Egypt's arms purchases from Communist Czechoslovakia. The request was made last November.

The announcement eight days ago that tanks were being loaded for Saudi Arabia brought from some Democratic senators accusations that the administration was denying weapons to Israel while helping arm her Arab neighbors.

The administration quickly clamped an embargo on all arms deliveries to the Middle East, including the tanks. Two days later it lifted that embargo, saying a determination had been made that the tank delivery would not affect the over-all arms balance in the Middle East. The tanks were shipped from New York Monday.

Dulles, who was vacationing in the Bahamas at the time, has said he knew nothing of the incident until he got to Miami two days ago.

More Police Forces use FORDS because ## it takes a FORD to catch a FORD

70% of all state police cars are Fords. That's the case right now—as it has been for years. Police cars must have the "scat" to get going fast—to pass other cars lightning-quick. And they must be able to take a terrific beating.

What the police forces know can be a great help in your kind of driving. For the Ford V-8 engine will pay off in your Ford just as it does in a police car.

Hills will shrink before the might of your Ford V-8. You'll take off like greased lightning. You'll pass other cars—no wait. You'll get the same performance that made the Ford V-8 the largest-selling eight—not just to police forces—but all over the world!

You can have the most powerful standard engine in Ford's field. For the Thunderbird V-8 engine is the standard eight in all Ford Fairlane and Station Wagon models—at no extra cost. And in all Ford engines you get rugged Y-block design, which you can depend on for smoother, quieter operation and longer life.

And you get a car that is built by the world's most experienced V-8 maker. You get the brakes, the ride, the handling, the build to give you the most pleasure out of V-8 power.

So get a Ford V-8. Bask in the admiration of owning a car that looks like a Thunderbird. Treat your family to the extra safety of Ford's exclusive Lifeguard Design. Get the only car that keeps up with the Fords—the 1956 Ford V-8!

Emmet Garden Club Met in Home of Mrs. J. M. Johnson

Mrs. J. M. Johnson was hostess to the Emmet Garden Club on Washington's Birthday, with Mrs. Sam Pankey as co-hostess.

The Johnson home was gay with spring flowers and the centerpiece on the serving table featured the George Washington motif.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Johnson presided, and the meeting was opened with prayer. After the roll call and minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Ramey Garland, the acting president paid a brief tribute to George Washington the "Father of Agriculture and Horticulture." The President asked the visitors to identify themselves as she called their names.

Three ladies from Hope Garden Clubs and five from Prescott Garden Club were present.

Mrs. Sam Pankey program chairman presented Mrs. Joe R. Hamilton of Prescott whose subject was, "Birds" of our country. She discussed briefly birds of the different regions of our country then more specifically our native birds in this area. She illustrated her talk with the use of her field glasses and colored prints of birds. The talk was very informal in the nature of a quiz, "Do you know your birds?" The members and guests enjoyed participating in the program. The club presented Mrs. Hamilton with a gift.

The hostess served a salad plate with favors of red, white and blue and Martha Washington tea to the following out of town guests: Mrs. A. A. Halbert, Mrs. C. W. ## Says Student Wasn't Really Sincere

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times today quoted William F. Adams, dean of admissions at the University of Alabama, as saying he does not believe Autherine J. Lucy had a real interest in gaining an education at the university.

Adams was the defendant in the court action that won the admission of Miss Lucy, a Negro, to the university on Feb. 1. She now is seeking a contempt action against him and other university officials, charging they acted in concert to keep her from attending classes.

In a dispatch from Tuscaloosa by Wayne Phillips, Adams said Miss Lucy, in her letter asking for an application bank, stated that she wished to study journalism. Her friend, Pollie Anne Myers, Adams said, indicated an interest in library science.

Miss Lucy has said she went to the university to take courses in library science.

When the girls' applications arrived in the mail, Adams said, he found they had exchanged fields of interests originally stated in their letters.

The newspaper said Adams denied, as had been reported, that Miss Lucy had been accepted by the University before it was known she was a Negro.

Adams said he told the girls he could not admit either of them because neither had maintained a B average as an undergraduate—nor had they taken undergraduate courses indicating an interest in the fields of study for which they were applying.

The newspaper quoted Adams as saying of Miss Lucy: "She never came here as an individual. It was always at the head of a delegation. No other student does that."

Mrs. Ruby Hurley, a regional official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People said in Charleston, S. C., that the dean's charges were "utterly ridiculous."

Barber Holds One Stroke Lead

HOUSTON (AP) — Jerry Barber, a 40-year-old California golfer who keeps talking about retiring from regular tournament play, began the second round of the $30,000 Houston Open today with a one-stroke lead.

The little pro from Los Angeles finished last with a first-round 33-34—67 to overcome an early 68 posted by Bill Casper Jr., 24-year-old San Diego golfer making his first swing of the winter circuit.

Jack Burke Jr., playing before his home town fans and in the same threesome with Barber, dropped a six-foot birdie put on the 18th green to match Casper's 68.

The game was as thrilling as any possibly could be and twice on the brink of defeat the Hope lads, fighting their hearts out, came through for a rousing victory.

Johnny Graves was the man of the hour and he had the whole-hearted backing of six others. It was Graves who twice hit the basket when it really counted.

Five seconds were left in the regular game and Jonesboro was ahead two points 39 to 37 and a free shot coming. The Jonesboro lads missed, Watkins grabbed the ball and passed to Graves who dunked it in as the whistle sounded, tying it up and forcing an overtime.

In the overtime Jonesboro made the first two points and Hope came back with two to tie it up. With only a few seconds left and the score 41-41 Jonesboro got another free shot try. It was missed and again a Hope lad snapped the ball and tossed it to Graves who hurled it for the basket as the whistle sounded. The ball swished through and Hope won its second game in the state tournament 43 to 41.

It was an uphill battle all the way for the Bobkittens. Jonesboro took a 12 to 9 lead at the end of the first quarter and led 19 to 18 at the half. Twice in the third period Hope tied it up but Jonesboro rallied to take a 28 to 23 lead at the end of three, setting the stage for a great fourth period rally by the local lads.

Dave Watkins was the boy for Hope in the scoring with 18. Graves made 9, Foster 3, Hairr 7, Hatfield 3 and Formby and Stone saw action.

The Bobkittens play the winner of the Monticello-Newport game tonight at 9 p. m. KXAR will carry the broadcast.

A Pony victory Saturday night will assure the SMU squad a spot in the NCAA tournament. But should the Ponies and Hogs tie for the title, then a post-season game on neutral ground would have to be played to determine the SWC representative in the NCAA play-off.

There are several other games in the loop this week but they are among teams rattling around in the bottom of the conference standings.

Baylor is host to Texas at Waco tomorrow and Rice, which once was a top contender but has since faded from the picture, goes to College Station to play the Texas Aggies tonight.

Owner Plans to Close World Famous Club

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Owner Herman Hoyer said today he plans to close down his world-famous club about May 26.

His threat to end the long and colorful history of the Sunset Strip showplace stems, he said, from "corrupt practices" in the entertainment industry. But he declined to elaborate.

"We haven't had a strike," he remarked. "We haven't had labor troubles. We've had more big names than any other night club in the world, and we've had some wonderful parties. But certain practices have made it very difficult to continue in business. I'm not going to fight it any longer."

"But Ciro's is going out in a blaze of glory. Our last acts will be Pearl Bailey, Marjorie Chevalier and Martin and Lewis. I expect to close the place down around May 26 or perhaps a little later."

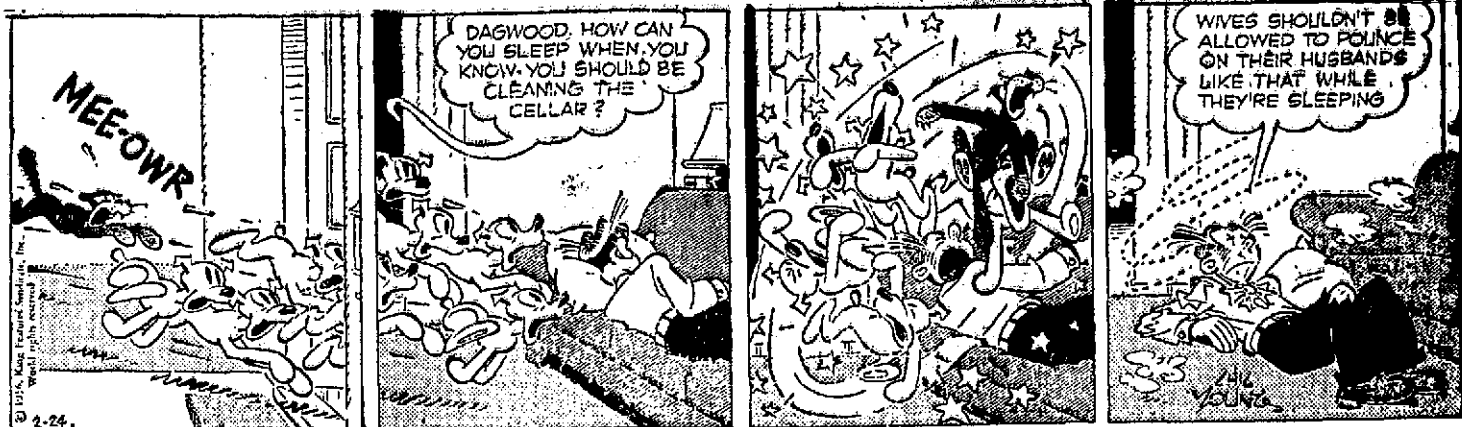

He admitted that he is "leaving the door a little open," but doubts if the situation will alter enough to change his mind about shutting it.

"I don't plan to sell Ciro's," he said. "I have worked too hard for it in
